

HIGH SCHOOL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT CHAIRPERSON

Every Catholic high school shall have a full-time faculty member or the assigned Chaplain as chairperson for the Religious Education Department. The chairperson shall be responsible, together with the administrator, for the religious education program in the school.

The chairperson of the Religious Education Department shall have a Master's degree in Catholic theology, divinity or religious education before appointment to that position.