DIVINE MERCY: THE SPARK THAT IS SETTING THE WORLD AFLAME

“I became aware of the Lord Jesus clothed in a white garment. One hand was raised in blessing, the other was touching the garment at the breast. From the opening of the garment at the breast there came forth two large rays, one red, and the other pale.... After a while Jesus said to me: Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the inscription: ‘Jesus, I trust in You.’” (Diary, 47)

These words, taken from the diary of St. Faustina Kowalska, are the words of Jesus as he guided the visionary to capture the image he wished to reveal to the world of himself as the Lord of Divine Mercy.

During periods of salvation history, when the world is in great need of divine intervention, the Lord often chooses as an intermediary a simple man or woman, unknown to the world, but exceptionally well known to him. The third of ten children, born on August 25, 1905, in Glogowiec, Poland, young Helena Kowalska showed an early love of prayer, work and a sensitivity to the poor. Before the age of 20, she joined the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Warsaw, after which she lived in the congregation’s monasteries in Vilnius and Krakow. The 13 years of her religious life encompassed simple duties as cook, gardener, and door keeper. Her spiritual life, however, was imbued with personal contact with God, receiving the supernatural gifts of revelations, visions, hidden stigmata, bilocation, prophecy and the reading of souls. The mission of Sister Mary Faustina was recorded in her diary, which she kept at the specific request of Jesus and also of her spiritual director. So faithfully did she record the wishes of the Lord in this diary that he called her “Secretary of my most profound mystery.”

Perhaps it is no coincidence that two aspects of St. Faustina's life are similar to those in the life of the founder of the Knights of Columbus, Father Michael J. McGivney. Father McGivney was called home to God early in his life, two days after his 38th birthday, from tuberculosis. Sister Mary Faustina also was consumed by tuberculosis and died in Krakow at the age of just 33, on October 5, 1938.

Faustina's reputation for holiness grew as the Divine Mercy devotion spread and many graces were received by those who prayed to her for intercession. It was the Archbishop of Krakow, the Most Rev. Karol Wojtyla, who initiated the cause for Faustina's canonization in 1965. Her beatification process initiated in Rome in 1968 and concluded in 1992. She was beatified on April 18, 1993, and canonized by Pope John Paul II on Sunday, April 30, 2000, during the Sacred Liturgy in St. Peter's Square. Supreme Knight and Mrs. Carl A. Anderson were present at the canonization.

As we began this brief synopsis of the life and work of St. Faustina with a quote from her diary, we close it with a quote from the homily given by the Holy Father at her canonization: And you, Faustina, a gift of God to our time, a gift of the land of Poland to the whole Church, obtain for us an awareness of the depth of divine mercy, help us to have a living experience of it and to bear witness to it among our brothers and sisters. May your message of life and hope spread throughout the world, spurring sinners to conversion, calming rivalries and hatred, and opening individuals and nations to the practice of brotherhood. Today, fixing our gaze with you on the face of the risen Christ, let us make our own your prayer of trusting abandonment, and say with firm hope:

Christ Jesus, I trust in You! Jezu, ufam Tobie!

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

1 Peter 1:3-9

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Peter

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”
Let the house of Aaron say,
“His mercy endures forever.”
Let those who fear the LORD say,
“His mercy endures forever.” R.

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the LORD helped me.
My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.
The joyful shout of victory
in the tents of the just. R.

The stone which the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.
This is the day the LORD has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it. R.

Gospel Acclamation

John 20:29

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe! R.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Gospel

John 20:19-31

✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
R. Glory to you, Lord.

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail-marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.” Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
