INTRODUCTORY RITES

Prelude

Opening Hymn Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All

1. Je - sus, my Lord, my God, my All,
2. Had I but Ma - ry's sin - less heart
3. Thy Bod - y, Soul, and God - head, all,

1. How can I love thee as I ought?
2. To love thee with, my dear - est King,
3. O mys - ter - y of love di - vine.

1. And how re - vere this won - drous gift,
2. Oh, with what bursts of fer - vent praise
3. I can - not com - pass all I have,

1. So far sur - pass - ing hope or thought?
2. Thy good - ness, Je - sus, would I sing.
3. For all thou hast and art are mine.

Sweet Sac - ra - ment, we thee a - dore;

Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Gloria

Glo - ry to God, glo - ry to God, glo-ry to God in the high - est, and on earth peace, on earth peace to peo - ple of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a - dore you, we glo - ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, heav - en-ly King, O God, al-might - y Fa - ther.
Lord Je - sus Christ, On - ly Be-got - ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa - ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us;

The musical score is written on ten staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a 6/8 time signature. The music is primarily in 6/8 time, with a 3/8 time signature appearing in the eighth staff. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the tenth staff.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Exodus 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice,
"We will do everything that the LORD has told us."
Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.
Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls;
the other half he splashed on the altar.
Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do."
Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying,
"This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his.

Responsorial

Psalm 33

R. I will take the cup of sal-va-tion, and call on the name of the Lord.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters:

When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.
For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ,
who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant:
since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

Sequence

Laud, O Zion, your salvation,
Laud with hymns of exultation,
Christ, your king and shepherd true:

Bring him all the praise you know,
He is more than you bestow.
Never can you reach his due.

Special theme for glad thanksgiving
Is the quick'ning and the living

Bread today before you set:

From his hands of old partaken,
As we know, by faith unshaken,
Where the Twelve at supper met.

Full and clear ring out your chanting,
Joy nor sweetest grace be wanting,
From your heart let praises burst:

For today the feast is holden,
When the institution olden
Of that supper was rehearsed.

Here the new law's new oblation,
By the new king's revelation,
Ends the form of ancient rite:

Now the new the old effaces,
Truth away the shadow chases,
Light dispels the gloom of night.

What he did at supper seated,
Christ ordained to be repeated,
His memorial ne'er to cease:

And his rule for guidance taking,
Bread and wine we hallow, making Thus our sacrifice of peace.

This the truth each Christian learns,
Bread into his flesh he turns,
To his precious blood the wine:

Sight has fail'd, nor thought conceives,
But a dauntless faith believes,
Resting on a pow'r divine.

Here beneath these signs are hidden

Priceless things to sense forbidden;
Signs, not things are all we see:

Blood is poured and flesh is broken,
Yet in either wondrous token Christ entire we know to be.

Whoso of this food partakes,
Does not rend the Lord nor breaks;
Christ is whole to all that taste:

Thousands are, as one, receivers,
One, as thousands of believers,
Eats of him who cannot waste.

Bad and good the feast are sharing,
Of what divers dooms preparing,
Endless death, or endless life.

Life to these, to those damnation,
See how like participation
Is with unlike issues rife.

When the sacrament is broken,
Doubt not, but believe 'tis spoken,
That each sever'd outward token doth the very whole contain.

Nought the precious gift divides,
Breaking but the sign betides
Jesus still the same abides, still unbroken does remain.

Lo! the angel's food is given To the pilgrim who has striven;
see the children's bread from heaven, which on dogs may not be spent.

Truth the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its lifeblood spilling, manna to the fathers sent.
Very bread, good shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of your love befriend us,
You refresh us, you defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see.

You who all things can and know,
Who on earth such food bestow,
Grant us with your saints, though lowest,
Where the heav'nly feast you show,
Fellow heirs and guests to be. Amen. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Mark 14:12-16 , 22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb,
Jesus' disciples said to him,
"Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"
He sent two of his disciples and said to them,
"Go into the city and a man will meet you,
carrying a jar of water.
Follow him.
Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house,
'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'"

Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready.
Make the preparations for us there."

The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them;
and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating,
he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said,
"Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

He said to them,
"This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.
Amen, I say to you,

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
