GUIDING QUESTIONS	LEARNING OUTCOMES (SWBAT)	VOCABULARY	REFERENCES
How is Christ's sacrifice made present in the Mass?	-know that it is Christ himself, the eternal high priest of the New Covenant, who acting through the ministry of the priests, offers the Eucharistic sacrifice -know that it is Christ, really present under the species of bread and wine, who is offering the Eucharistic sacrifice -know that the Eucharist is the memorial of this sacrifice. The Church gathers to remember and to re-present the sacrifice of Christ in which we share through the action of the priest and the power of the Holy Spirit. Through the celebration of the Eucharist, we are joined to Christ's sacrifice and receive its inexhaustible benefits -know that Jesus, not confined within time or history, the eternal Son of God, made his act of sacrifice in the presence of his Father, who lives in eternity. Jesus' one perfect sacrifice is thus eternally present before the Father, who eternally accepts it. This means that in the Eucharist, Jesus does not sacrifice himself again and again. Rather, by the power of the Holy Spirit his one eternal sacrifice is made present once again, re-presented, so that we may share in it. WB6: Ch 23, 25 WLOF7: Ch 12, 16; Seasons and Celebrations: Triduum; Retreat: Liturgy & Sacraments WLOF8: Ch 4; Seasons and Celebrations: Triduum		Heb 9:12; CCC 613-23, 1356-72

Its origin goes back to the nine days Mary and the disciples spent together in prayer between Ascension and Pentecost. Chaplet: a string of prayers, counted through beads, centered on a common theme (traditionally fewer prayers than the rosary) Divine Mercy Devotion: From the diary of a young Polish nun, a special devotion began spreading throughout the world in the 1930s. The message is nothing new, but is a reminder of what the Church has always taught through scripture and tradition: that God is merciful and forgiving and that we, too, must show mercy and forgiveness. But in the Divine Mercy devotion, the message takes on a powerful new focus, calling people to a deeper knowing that God’s love is unlimited and available to everyone—especially the greatest sinners. The message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, who wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God’s mercy. Litany: a litany is a repetitive prayer form, usually characterized by the announcement of varying invocations (e.g. lists of divine titles, names of saints) or supplications by a leader, each of which is followed by a fixed congregational response. Mysteries of the Rosary: a prayer in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which repeats the privileged Marian prayer Hail Mary, in “decades” of ten prayers, each preceded by the Our Father and concluded by the Glory Be, accompanied by meditation on the mysteries of Christ’s life. Stations of the Cross: The Stations of the Cross are a 14-step devotion that commemorates Jesus Christ’s last day, beginning with His condemnation. The stations are commonly used as a mini pilgrimage as the individual moves from station to station.
