

VOCATIONS: FAMILY FEATURE

EXPERIENCE VOCATION

The fifth graders have been exploring different aspects of the way in which God calls each of us to a vocation—now in our everyday life of prayer and virtue, and then later on to a specific calling: to the religious life, to marriage, or to the priesthood. Through these vocation units there is hope that students will become familiar with all the vocations so that later they will be able to discover God's call for them.

Here are some questions to spark some discussion between you and your child about your own experiences. Choose any of the following questions to discuss with your child. Share what your answers to these questions would be with your child.

- Which priests have made a positive impact on your faith? How?
- What do you remember about your first Holy Communion?
- What is your best memory of Church?
- Have you ever met a religious sister or brother? If so, what was it like?
